Acknowledgments

In 1971 work was begun to catalogue the archives of the Hyde Park Historical Society. From that day to this, the card catalogues of this shelf listing, have served the society and researchers. Now all this work has been entered into a computer and published as the second catalogue of the Society.

General Henry Beebe Carrington put together a catalogue in the early 1900's, with corresponding numbers attached to many of the artifacts and papers and books and pamphlets of the Society. For months as the 1971 people searched and recorded the archives, a book containing the catalogue listings was sought. After six months, it was finally found.

These workers in the vineyards deserve the credit in preparing the raw data from which this catalogue has been published.

HYDE PARK HISTORICAL SOCIETY ARCHIVES

I. GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE TOWN OF HYDE PARK, THE ARCHIVES AND ARCHIVAL MATERIALS

THE YEAR OF THIS CATALOGUE IS 1996. CURRENT UPDATING OF MATERIAL AND AQUISITIONS CONTINUE. FROM TIME TO TIME, UPDATES TO THIS CATALOGUE WILL BE PUBLISHED.

A. BRIEF HISTORY OF THE AREA AND THE SOCIETY.

(1. The earliest settlements of the area which was later to become the town of Hyde Park date from the 1600's.

(2. A wave of settlement began in 1840 to 1856-7 when building and land companies bought up tracts of land and offered them for sale. Some of the building and land companies built homes for speculation. Such a company was the Fairmount Land Company or the Twenty Associates one of the first building companies to buy land and divide it into equal lots and build houses for sale.

(3. The town of Hyde Park was incorporated by an Act of the Massachusetts Legislature in 1868. The town was formed from parts of Dorchester, Milton and Dedham. The situs of the town was in Norfolk County and records of deeds, and probate reside in that County up to 1912.

(4. The Hyde Park Historical Society was incorporated in 1887 and has been in continual existence for over 100 years.

(5. Most of the early acquisitions of the Society pertain to the Civil War. Purchases of libraries and donations of libraries of leading citizens enriched the collection along with a program of active exchange of historical materials instituted by an early President of the Society, Charles Chick.

II SPECIFIC CATALOGUE LISTING OF THE ARCHIVES

A. GENEALOGICAL MATERIALS CATALOGUE

I. Suggestions for using the genealogical collection.

a. When checking the of prominent Hyde Park people, check the Historical Society publication "The Hyde Park Historical Record" books for memorials. (These publications are in the closed cabinets under the glass-front cabinets.)

b. It might be helpful to check the complete set of the "Town reports of Massachusetts" in its own bookcase near the Rich Cabinet.

c. Two books resembling large bibles contain pictures and biographies of many early prominent Hyde Park people connected particularly with the Hyde Park Cooperative Bank and the Board of Selectmen.

d. Check all lists of Family Names--sometimes one name will have a few others after it all mentioned in that particular pamphlet. (Eg. Sands [prime name] Ray, Alcock, Dodge, Thomas, Guthrie, Palgrave, Hunt, Jessup; all the names following "Sands" are also mentioned in the "Sands" pamphlet).

e. See the "Record of Births in Hyde Park 1868-1871" by Charles Jenney in the Hyde Park Historical Record. This record was carried in the first few volumes of the Record and then printed only in the Town Reports of the Town of Hyde Park 1868-1911.

f. Check under the Massachusetts Historical Material for the "Massachusetts Society --Sons of the American Revolution."

g. Regarding genealogical catalogue cards--all cards are alphabetical by family name. The exceptions are those of towns Eg. "Genealogy of Medway (the town of Medway, Massachusetts) or "Genealogy Gleanings in England (the country)

3. SPECIFIC LISTINGS IN THE GENEALOGICAL COLLECTION--SURNAMES

This material is presented alphabetically with descriptive identification as to binding of the individual pieces. Those in hard cover bindings are listed first. Those pamphlets are listed separately after the hard-cover listings.

For ease in using this catalogue, the surnames only of the titles are underlined. We have made multiple listings when two or more surnames are used in the titles.

In some cases included in the books and pamphlets are interesting references to other historically interesting material and this is noted at the end of the listing for each item by an asterisk.

The Most Important Collections of The Archives of the Hyde Park Historical Society Deal With the Civil War.

Anti-slavery activists gave their books and histories; dealing with anti-bellum activity and their own writings. The presidents, notably Charles G. Chick solicited volumes from colleagues across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts of Civil War works and when the Society was founded in 1887, citizens of Hyde Park began to donate their letters and pictures concerning their part in the war.

President Chick collected many volumes from Massachusetts State publications of Army and Regimental Histories as well as official Uniform folios and Army Chains of Command.

These important listings follow.
